TRAINING OBJECTIVE

To explore and understand the diverse and emerging avenues within the agribusiness sector, focusing on business management principles that enhance productivity, profitability, and sustainability. This involves identifying new technologies, innovative practices, and evolving market demands that impact agri-business. The goal is to equip participants with strategic insights, managerial skills, and practical knowledge needed to effectively operate, expand, and innovate within the agricultural value chain. By understanding these opportunities, participants can contribute to a more resilient and efficient agri-business sector, addressing both local and global agricultural needs.

TRAINING OUT COME

By the end of the "Opportunities in Agri-Business" training, participants will be able to identify emerging agri-business trends and apply practical business management skills to enhance productivity. They will be equipped to explore new market opportunities, implement sustainable and climate-smart practices, and effectively manage risks. The training will also strengthen their networking and collaboration skills, positioning them to create resilient, competitive, and innovative agri-business ventures.
